

English Language Proficiency Attestation

Proof of English language proficiency is an application requirement for the PhD program that must be satisfied in one of six ways. Please check at least one box below that applies and upload this document along with any required documentation as noted.

Applicant Name:

- I have obtained a passing score on a TOEFL/IELTS exam within the last 3 years; exam score will be uploaded.
- I have a signed letter from an academic institution or English language school that is internationally recognized by IALC or other recognized entity. The letter was dated within the last two years and states the dates when the prospective student attended the institution or school. The letter affirms that the scholar achieved at least intermediate level skills, the equivalent of a B-2 on the Common European Framework of Reference for Language or CEFR, in English language speaking and listening. This letter will be uploaded.
- I am a Native English speaker from one of the qualifying countries below.

Country:

Anguilla	Grenada	St. Lucia
Antigua	Guyana	St. Vincent and the Grenadines
Australia	Irish Republic	Tanzania
Bahamas	Jamaica	Tobago
Barbados	Kenya	Trinidad
Belize	Micronesia	Turks & Caicos Islands
Bermuda	Montserrat	United Kingdom: England, Northern Ireland, Scotland, and Wales
British Virgin Islands	New Zealand	Zimbabwe
Canada (except Quebec)	Nigeria
Dominica	Philippines
Gambia	Saint Kits & Nevis
Grand Cayman Islands	Singapore

- I have received a diploma from a U.S. University. A copy of this diploma will be uploaded.
- The applicant attended a foreign university where the instruction took place in English. A signed letter from the university will be uploaded.
- The PhD program director has conducted an English language interview with me and can attest I am proficient in the English language. Documentation from the program director will be uploaded.

Applicant Comments (if any):